GSA HOLDS VIRTUAL ALLIANT/ALLIANT SB INDUSTRY DAY

Online video presents strategy and timeline.

WASHINGTON -- The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) today announced that an Alliant/Alliant Small Business (Alliant SB) video will be posted on the Internet Feb. 21 and will contain the contract strategy and timeline for the two new government-wide acquisition contracts (GWAC) for information technology (IT) solutions.

“We decided to release this information on the Web, because we wanted to ensure that it would be available to all interested parties, rather than limiting the audience to those able to attend a traditional Industry Day,” said John Johnson, GSA’s Assistant Commissioner for Service Development and Delivery. “There is a great deal of interest in these contracts, and the Web provides a venue that makes the information available to all, at their own convenience.”

To access the video, please see the Tuesday, Feb. 21, FedBizOpps.gov notice. Upon release of the video, GSA will accept comments and questions via the email address specified on FedBizOpps.

GSA is a centralized federal procurement, property management, and policy agency, created by Congress to improve government efficiency and help federal agencies better serve the public. It acquires, on behalf of federal agencies, office space, equipment, telecommunications, information technology, supplies and services. It also plays a key role in developing and implementing government-wide policies. GSA’s 13,000 associates provide services and solutions for the office operations of more than one million federal workers located in more than 8,000 government-owned and leased buildings in 2,000 U.S. communities.
